Join a group of peers for an ongoing experience of looking together at difficult cases with an experienced consultant!

Whatever your modality of doing long-term or intensive psychotherapy, the dynamics of the psychotherapy relationship are always central to the process. Complex and seemingly incomprehensible forms of transference and countertransference are always emerging that beg to be sorted out and understood. Dr. Hedges has been listening and responding to the most difficult cases of literally hundreds of therapists for over 40 years and together, with collaboration from peer therapists, can usually point some ways to begin to make sense of puzzling dilemmas.

For a no charge consultation with Dr. Hedges schedule an appointment with Monica at (714) 633-3933 or email lhedges7@gmail.com
