Ongoing Case Conference Seminars

Instructor: Lawrence E. Hedges, Ph.D, Psy.D., ABPP

Each case conference seminar meets for 90 minutes twice a month.

Psychodynamic Relational Psychotherapy today requires not only that a long-term relationship be allowed to develop with the client to maximize transference and countertransference development, but that the therapist be willing to maintain an ongoing relationship with peer and expert consultants to review his or her ongoing work in light of advanced theory and peer opinion. Additionally, current ethical and legal guidelines require that we regularly discuss difficult situations and countertransference reactions with peers and/or experts to be certain that we maintain objectivity and current standards of practice. Monthly fee $130.
